How does Omada virtual physical therapy work?

You'll start with a video visit with your physical therapist, who assesses your condition by guiding you through a series of movements using the Omada app.

Your physical therapist will then diagnose the source of your pain or discomfort and create a treatment plan.

Omada's virtual assessment tools provide easy and accurate ways to check your range of motion. It also helps your physical therapist monitor your progress and make adjustments so you have a speedier recovery.

Do I need a referral from my doctor to get started?
